'My miracle escape from car smash'

Mum, 27, feared fuel tank might explode

Have your say at

UPSIDE DOWN: Top, Alison Birch's car after it smashed head-on into a tree. Above, Alison with Scott and partner Ross

A YOUNG mum from Haverhill had a 'miracle escape' after her car smashed head-on into a tree and then landed upside down in a ditch.

Alison Birch, 27, lost control of her Vauxhall Astra as she approached a bend on the brow of a hill and ended up crashing off the road.

On Tuesday, Alison told how she feared that the car was going to explode and how she desperately fought to free herself from the wreckage.

The mother, who has a 9-month-old baby, managed to crawl out of the passenger window of her car and emerged relatively unscathed.

She said: "It felt like I was trapped inside the car for ever. It was probably only minutes but felt like a lifetime when the panic took over.

"It was eerily quiet to start with but then I could hear the engine still running so I panicked.

"I kept thinking about the fuel tank because I knew it was full and I just thought it was going to explode. After checking I could wiggle my toes and move, I managed to crawl out of the window."

Alison had been driving to a training session in Cambridge on Wednesday, March 16, when her car left the road shortly before 8am. She says she was driving at around 55mph on the road which had a speed limit of 60mph. She managed to adopt the brace position as she knew the crash was coming, but didn't expect to hit the tree.

Alison was taken to Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge and miraculously had only suffered minor cuts and bruises.

She added: "The paramedics could not believe I had managed to walk away after seeing the state of the car.

"They said I was very calm even though I was in shock. I'm just so thankful my baby boy Scott wasn't in the car."

Get ready for summer fun!

SUMMER LOVING:
Photos taken at last year's Summer Bash in Haverhill

HUNDREDS of visitors are expected to flock to Haverhill Summer Bash this year to take part in festivities and raise money for good causes.

The date has been set for this year's event - Sunday, July 17 - and there will be a range of activities and shows for people of all ages.

Now in its fourth year, the Summer Bash will cater for a wide array of interests. There will be a car show, a baby show, a cake show, a dog show and a flower show.

On top of this, there will be live music from local bands, and plenty of food and drink stalls for refreshment.

David Doughty, one of the main organisers, said: "Weather permitting, it should be the same fantastic smiley faces we see every year. It's just such a great day and it's the biggest community fundraising event of the year for Haverhill."

The event will take place on Haverhill recreation ground, and in previous years it has attracted between 4,000 and 6,000 visitors.

This year, there will be a

NICK WILLOUGHBY
@ncawilloughby

series of dance performances, as well as a sprinkling of exciting new additions - which Mr Doughty is keeping under wraps for the time being.

Along with providing fun for all the family, one of the main aims of the festival is to raise money for a variety of local charities, and over previous years, more than £15,000 has been raised.

Money will be raised for LampH, a charity for children and adults with learning disabilities; Haverhill in Bloom and Get Up and Grow, an allotment project.

The event is also fundraising for the town's Scouts and Guides, and Mr Doughty is hoping some of its members will be available to help out on the day.

Organisers are still appealing for local businesses to sponsor the festival, or to help out by buying prizes for the raffle.

Mr Doughty said: "Some of the smaller independent businesses in the area are really generous, so it would be great to see some of the bigger ones involved."

"Companies don't have to donate a lot of money if they don't want to. There will be a raffle where some of the prizes are donated by local companies, and they could help out with that."

"We have approached most companies, but there are still a few big ones that haven't come forward."

"We are still looking for an overall sponsor for the show. We would put their name everywhere, as well as on our website."

"Every one of the smaller shows in the main show itself could have its own sponsor."

Mr Doughty added there was still plenty of time for stallholders to get involved - whether they want to supply food, gifts or crafts.

For more information or to get involved, email: haverhillsummerbash@outlook.com.

Family is focus for Players' new show

THE Ketton Players are putting the final touches to their latest production, Family Planning.

The play by Frank Vickery reveals the potential for family situations to produce side-splitting humour.

Set in the 1980s, a hypochondriac dad, gossipy neighbour and ever-present Gran should have the audience giggling at the characters they recognise in their own family and friends.

The play will be performed on April 8 and 9 at the Kedington Community Centre on Arms Lane. Doors open at 7pm and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Tickets – £7 for adults and £6 for concessions – are available from Kedington Butchers, Nisa Stores or via the box office, which can be contacted on 01440 704320.

ENVIRONMENT

Flood strategy helps vulnerable

KEY revisions have been made to a Suffolk flood risk document in order to protect some of the county's most vulnerable communities.

Important changes concerning drainage, surface water risk and watercourse/flood investigation have been made by Suffolk County Council to the Suffolk Flood Risk Management Strategy, and come in with immediate effect.

The most important area of the strategy that has been strengthened is how Suffolk ensures that new housing and commercial development does not increase flood risk, focussing on using sustainable drainage systems (SuDS) wherever possible.

The document lays down guidelines for local agencies, planning authorities and developers to work together. The primary principle is that developers should be putting in above-ground SuDS to deliver flood management, management of water quality and amenity and environmental enhancements. It also specifies that long-term maintenance processes for drainage systems are put in place.

HOUSING

New homes hit landmark

AN extra 25 per cent affordable homes have built in West Suffolk compared to the previous year, bringing construction to a three-year high.

From 2015 to 2016, 200 new homes were built with the 200th coming as part of a larger development in Kedington built by Bloor Homes. The figure is in contrast to the 145 affordable homes that were built a year earlier.

Cllr Sara Mildmay-White, West Suffolk lead member for housing said: "Having access to a suitable home is important for the health and wellbeing of individuals, families and communities.

"Forest Heath and St Edmundsbury councils have made homes for our communities a top priority and I am delighted with the steady progress being made. There is no simple solution or quick fix to achieving this. Every opportunity has to be seized and we are lucky in working with equally committed partners."

POLICING

Police changes roll in – but not enough staff yet

SUFFOLK Constabulary has revealed there will not be enough officers to fill roles at Haverhill police station after cuts are rolled out this week.

The force said that the town's Safer Neighbourhood Team (SNT) would be losing one police constable and three police community support officers (PCSO).

And due to problems finding new recruits, Haverhill's SNT will only be able to fill three of the five PCSO roles it has planned when the cuts come into effect on April 4.

The changes to staff will leave the police station with one sergeant, three police constables, three PCSOs and one inspector – which will be shared with Sudbury as the two towns are combined to form one of nine new policing "localities".

The front desk of Haverhill

NICK WILLOUGHBY

police station – along with all but three across the county – will close.

County policing commander, chief superintendent David Skevington said: "As the Constabulary has moved towards the launch of the new policing model on April 4, 2016, complex staffing issues have been addressed to ensure that the correct people are placed at agreed locations across the county.

"A number of PCSOs were placed 'at risk' as a result of the re-design, furthermore the role they perform has changed. Core duties have been re-defined, working hours have changed and some locations have moved.

Alongside this, police officer recruitment has opened with a number of PCSOs applying for these roles.

"The work to ensure that all the PCSO posts in the new model are filled is under way and is progressing well, but will not be completed until planned recruitment and staff moves have taken place.

"This will mean that some Safer Neighbourhood Teams will have some vacancies for the first few months of the new financial year, however every effort is being made to ensure we select the best people to be part of the community policing team."

The changes to funding, announced in December, were intended to help Suffolk police save £20.5 million, although this target has been reduced after a boost in funding from the Home Office.

Sun shines for an Easter egg hunt

WE'RE GOING ON AN EGG HUNT: Natalie Jones, 3, shows off her Easter bonnet.

THE sun was shining on Good Friday as more than 700 people flocked to Kedington Community Centre for Easter festivities.

Punters enjoyed an Easter egg hunt, met the Easter bunnies and took part in a variety of games, said co-organiser Iain Ross.

The event has been run by the Haverhill branch of the Ipswich Town Supporters Club for 10 years to raise funds for the group. On this occasion, there was a raffle with prizes donated by 36 local traders and special games – including one called 'Pick a Stick', where players had to try and find a painted lollipop stick hidden in a box for a prize. The money raised will be used to provide Ipswich Town fans living in Haverhill with a coach to take them to and from matches.

"Each time we run the coach we lose between £10 and £100," said Mr Ross. "A lot of the people who get on the coach are either pensioners or juniors."

CRIME

Three arrests in drugs raid

CLASS A drugs have been seized and three arrests made in Haverhill as part of a series of police raids targeting drug dealing.

Officers executed a warrant at a property in Western Avenue, Haverhill, on Wednesday, March 16.

They discovered a quantity of Class A drugs, and arrested three men – a 50-year-old from the Bury St Edmunds area, a 31-year-old from Haverhill and a 27-year-old from Haverhill – on suspicion of being concerned in the supply of a controlled drug.

The 27-year-old man was also arrested in connection with a burglary in Haverhill and an attempted burglary in Colchester. He was charged with the Haverhill burglary where iPads and handbags were stolen, and was remanded in custody until he appears at Ipswich Crown Court on April 14.

The other two men arrested during the Haverhill drugs raid have been bailed to return to police on April 29, so that officers can make more inquiries.

The warrant was one of a series carried out across West Suffolk targeting drug dealing.

Officers searched 23 people and arrested 10 as they executed the warrants. They seized around 400 wraps of Class A drugs, with an estimated value of £6,000 as well as a quantity of cannabis, cash and mobile phones.

Four people – two men aged 42 and 35 and a 39-year-old woman, all from Bury St Edmunds, as well as an 18-year-old man from Peterborough – were all arrested after a raid in the Station Hill area of Bury on March 17.

After class A drugs were discovered at the property, they were interviewed in custody and have been bailed to return to police on June 17.

A further three people – men aged 21 and 22 from Bury St Edmunds and a 16-year-old boy from Northamptonshire – were all arrested after a warrant on the same day in the Mitchell Avenue area of Bury. Drugs, phones and cash were seized and the three have been bailed to return to police on May 17.

Det Insp Karl Nightingale said: "We know that a number of recent crimes have been linked to drug supply into the area and we will continue to act on information we receive to disrupt this activity. We would ask anyone with details about those dealing in their community to call police using the non-emergency number 101 or to ring Crimestoppers, anonymously if required, on 0800 555 111."

No exit for a small majority

COUNTRIES whose names don't work with 'exit' will be barred from leaving the EU.

The Eccentric Party proposes that Britain be cleared to leave the EU because Brexit is perfectly usable while other countries have been permanently barred.

We will amend the Treaty of Lisbon so that countries whose names begin with two consonants not shared by any other member state be allowed to withdraw from the union.

The Grexit is unavoidable, and we can countenance a Brexit, a Spexit, a Swexit or even a Frexit.

We might even encourage a Czexit because that one's just perfect. Portugal, Italy, or Latvia will not be allowed to leave.

Latex sounds like a range of spray-on fetishwear. Slexit could mean Slovenia or Slovakia, so they cannot go anywhere.

And countries like Ireland, the Netherlands and Austria can forget it. Too unwieldy.

Norway will be barred from joining. A Noexit would mean that they were leaving and not leaving simultaneously, stranding them in quantum uncertainty forever.

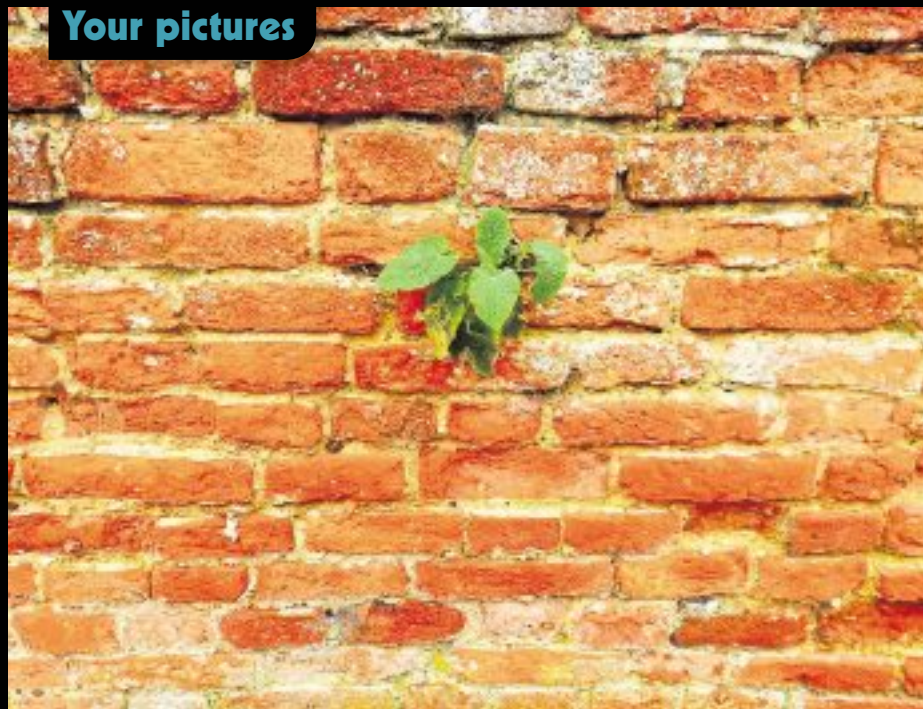

Lord Toby Jug
Leader, The Eccentric Party of Great Britain

Waving a patriotic flag

I SIT for hours trying to make sense of things, grappling with rights and wrongs, good and bad, if there are indeed such things any more.

The world, or rather the people in it are changing at such a pace it's difficult, nay, impossible, to keep up.

But before that happens, let us strike one last blow against tyranny. By standing up for everything we hold dear. That which man fought and died for, are proud of, our country, our monarchy, our flag, our moral code, our traditions.

All are now at risk! Let not the charlatan, the usurper, deceive you.

We are not safer, stronger in the hands of foreigners who have scant regard for our way of life. They would destroy it, and replace it with their unelected 'Politburo'.

The European Union is not a benign club of "fellow travellers" but a controlling giant masquerading as an angel of mercy. Mr Cameron PM: you have no concern for our grandchildren, only your own, who will be well cushioned from the "slings and arrows of outrageous fortune" unlike we cannon fodder. I risked life and limb for this great country of ours as did millions of others.

Whether I go to my grave happy or inconsolably miserable rests entirely on the decision of the British people on June 23, 2016.

PLEASED TO MEET EWE:
Families joined in the Easter fun provided by Haverhill Methodist Church on Saturday

Sheep is the theme for church fun

MORE than 80 people gathered in Haverhill town centre on Saturday to search for . . . knitted sheep.

The sheep were hidden in 30 shop windows, in a hunt organised by Haverhill Methodist Church.

After the hunt, the families who took part were welcomed at the church by two rare breed sheep before joining in lots of sheep-related crafts in a Messy Church session, which also included magic and storytelling by Rob Butcher.

The event finished with lunch, cakes, goody bags – and a knitted sheep to go home with.

ARTS CENTRE

New arts centre bar leads to more improvements

NICK WILLOUGHBY

@ncawilloughby

A NEW bar has been installed at Haverhill Arts Centre – and now organisers plan to carry out another round of improvements.

Feedback for the bar – which has been painted in two shades of green and includes 'feature lighting' – has been "overwhelmingly positive", according to Nick Keeble, arts and leisure manager.

The positive feedback comes in spite of the fact that the tables have yet to be delivered after the supplier suffered a flood at their premises.

Referring to the new paint, Mr Keeble said: "We thought putting the whole venue in one colour might be a bit one-dimensional, so we have taken the theme and worked with another colour palette."

He added oak panels used on the ground floor had been used again in the construction of the bar and on some of the high chairs, and a new vinyl wood floor had been installed. Special lighting on the walls now spells out the words 'theatre bar'.

The finishing touches to the bar mark the completion of the second phase of the refurbishment – which has been funded by a £125,000 grant from Haverhill Town Council.

Both phase one – which involved a complete refurbishment of the cafe, and redecoration and installation of a projector in the studio – and phase two came in under budget, so organisers plan to carry out further improvements.

"Once you start you just can't stop," said Mr Keeble.

"We have now realised the rest of the centre needs to come up to the same standards.

"We have now included a third stage which will focus on other public areas, including the first floor foyer and upper floor foyer.

"It's been done to keep everything in the house style to freshen it up and give it a more contemporary feel."

The new look for the cafe, studio and the bar was designed by Ashley Lloyd, a first-year BA Interior Design student at West Suffolk College.

Her design included theatrical elements, such as suspended jam jars and top hats in the cafe.

POLICE

Police force to take on more officers

SUFFOLK police are to recruit new officers for the first time in two years.

Police and Crime Commissioner Tim Passmore said: "When I made the decision to raise the policing element of the council tax I promised that the extra funds created would fund extra officers.

"By opening recruitment we will be able to bring in officers with new skill sets, I also hope that we will be able to recruit officers to reflect the new communities in the county."

Applications opened for members of the public to become police constables last Wednesday, March 23.

Around 100 police officers will be recruited in a phased process throughout the year, the force said.

These new roles will take over from officers who leave the force due to retirement or by natural turnover.

A lift on the recruiting freeze means there will be around 1,100 officers patrolling Suffolk.

The new recruitment drive comes after an increase in council tax for policing in the county, as well as an improved funding position from the Autumn statement.

Visit suffolk.police.uk for information to apply.

OBITUARY

Tributes paid to football stalwart

CHRIS ELLIOTT

@ChrisElliottCN

TRIBUTES are being paid to Haverhill's Mr Football, John Roper, who has died tragically in his 40s.

Mr Roper, who was just 48, had been suffering from leukaemia.

He was known for what his family described as his "massive commitment" to Haverhill Borough football club, and to other football organisations in the town.

John's daughter Stacey said in a statement to Haverhill News: "John Roper was a 48-year-old family man who adored his three kids, Leanne, Stacey and Christopher, and also his wife Teresa, who he met at the age of 17. They celebrated their 25th silver wedding anniversary on March 9 this year.

"He was a family man who would do anything for anyone, always putting others before himself.

He was a generous, loving man who was adored by many.

"His passion was to help develop and support local football teams, and he had a massive commitment to Haverhill Borough, which was his pride and joy. His support for the club went from driving the minibus to being a part of the club committee.

"He also helped Haverhill Rovers Ladies. All the girls appreciated everything he did, helping at every opportunity he could. He was a well known man within the local clubs, also supporting many other teams such as FC Bar Vu and Haverhill Rovers."

Gary Brown posted on Haverhill Borough's Twitter site: "For the last three years John had been a member of the Borough committee where he played a full role in ensuring the club developed. During this period he has run the line for the reserves, driven the bus, manned the gate, sold raffle tickets, and undertaken 101 other jobs to attempt to ensure that the club kept on running.

"I am sure everyone who knew John in the local football community would like to send their deepest sympathies to his family at this time."

Stacey added: "The family would like to give a mention to Chris Hickey and Paul Bottom for being by John's side and to Jeff Hubbard for supporting him for over 40 years' friendship and visiting him in hospital.

"The family would also like to give a special mention to John's best friend Ricky Bull who is his childhood friend and who was by his side through all of his treatment."

COMMITMENT: John Roper, who devoted much of his time to supporting football clubs in the Haverhill area

FUND-RAISING:
Jessica and Lauren on the day of the walk

Girls step out for charity walk

HAVERHILL girl Jessica Lee joined her mum and half-sister for a six-mile walk to raise around £300 for charity.

Nine-year-old Jessica, a pupil at New Cangle Primary School, completed the walk on Saturday, March 19, to raise money in memory of her uncle Lee Dunford, who died 10 years ago from blood cancer.

Her half-sister Lauren Dunford, aged 8, also took part in the walk from Sheringham to Cromer in Norfolk, along with Jessica's mother Kelli.

The two youngsters decided to split the money between cancer research charity Bloodwise and The Willow Foundation, which funds days out for the seriously ill.

Since Lee died from Hodgkin's lymphoma in 2006, relations have raised more than £70,000 for charity.

This has been largely through an annual rock festival called LeeStock, which is held at Long Melford, near Sudbury.

NEWS IN BRIEF

New signs to help tackle speeding

TWENTY new temporary vehicle activated signs purchased for Suffolk will be moved around the county to help reduce speeding.

The signs, bought by the Suffolk Roadsafe Board, will spend visit locations three times a year. They will mainly be used where are vulnerable road users.

Tim Passmore, Suffolk's police and crime commissioner, said: "What we are looking for is a change in behaviour rather like the drink drive campaigns that started many years ago and we can do this by using a variety of initiatives."

Spring clean planned for housing estate

HAVEBURY Housing Partnership is working with a national grounds maintenance company to help a community in Haverhill spring clean their estate.

The affordable housing provider will team up with Ground Control, alongside other local agencies including St Edmundsbury Borough Council, for what will be a week-long of spring cleaning events commencing Monday, April 11.

The project, which includes working closely with the Haverhill Community Ambassador, will involve a host of community projects including a skip day and a community litter pick, as well as providing works such as fence repairs, garage works, shrub bed improvements and grass cutting.

Win a great prize to help Glasswells mark 70 years!

HISTORY: The Glasswells store in Haverhill in 1966.
Right: The Langley recliner chair that's up for grabs

A LOCAL furniture shop is celebrating its 70th anniversary – and offering you the chance to win a fabulous chair and gift voucher!

Glasswells, which runs a shop in Haverhill High Street, was set up in May 1946 when Jerry Glasswell and his son Leslie set up shop in Brentgovel Street, Bury St Edmunds.

The company, now run by Jerry's grandson Paul Glasswell, expanded quickly, setting up its first shop in Haverhill in 1951, meaning it has been trading in the town for 65 years.

The Haverhill Glasswells store moved to its current location at 55 High Street in 1978, and has been there ever since. Store manager at the branch, Gary King, has been working for Glasswell's since 1977 – almost 40 years.

Glasswells is now the biggest home furnishing store, and has department stores in Bury St Edmunds and Ipswich.

Paul Glasswell said: "Glasswells' success is very much down to the support that we have received from the people of Suffolk and I am very pleased to have been able to supply furniture to our customers, their children and grandchildren over the years."

"As we've grown larger, we've tried very hard not to lose the personal touch."

do stress with all our staff how important it is to put the customer first and we hope that our extended business and large buying power that we have achieved, leads through to lower prices for the quality furnishings we offer our customers."

To celebrate the anniversary, Glasswells is offering readers a chance to win a beautiful Langley swivel recliner chair and stool worth £200, as well as a £50 gift card.

To be in with a chance of winning, email your answer to the following question to hannah.mirsky@cambridge-news.co.uk with your full name, address and phone number. Or you can post it to Haverhill News, Winship Road, Milton, Cambridge, CB24 6BQ. Closing date for entries is Friday, April 8.

WORLD AUTISM AWARENESS DAY

Living with autism

HOW much do you know about autism? Ahead of World Autism Awareness Day on Saturday, Hannah Mirsky spoke to local people who experience the condition on a day-to-day basis...

EMMA Croker, who works for vulnerable adults charity Leading Lives, says public understanding of autism tends to be outdated.

"People associate it with [1988 film] Rain Man – assuming everybody with autism is great with numbers," she said.

In fact autism can affect people in wide range of ways.

Tim Smart, a support worker at Leading Lives' Haverhill community hub, said: "It's such a wide spectrum – it runs from people you wouldn't have a clue had autism to people where it's obvious. It's almost like people with autism live in a different world. It's trying to make those worlds meet and not collide."

There is no simple way to define autism. The National Autistic Society describes it as "a lifelong, developmental disability that affects how a person communicates with and relates to other people, and how they experience the world around them".

Trevor Cook, who lives in Haverhill's Arrendene Road, has two sons on the autistic spectrum: Charlie, 23 and Toby, 21.

He says that when they were growing up they were "like chalk and cheese", adding: "Charlie was very quiet, no eye contact. He was really quite static. But Toby – I had to put locks on the doors!"

He said that he had little knowledge of autism when the boys were diagnosed.

"It's hard to understand really," he said. "No-one really could give you a future: will they get better, will they get worse?"

Emma said that there were certain traits which people with autism had in common. They included a need for slower, shorter instructions in conversation, little sense of danger or consequences, and a bit more support with practical tasks such as paying bills.

Pat Glancy, who is 66 and lives in Haverhill, has autism. She says things she enjoys include writing, word searches and collecting teddy bears, but she struggles if it's "very noisy with lots and lots of people".

She gets help from support workers with practical tasks like household chores and paperwork.

Support worker Tim said that the important thing when meeting people with autism was simply to engage with them as a person.

"Wherever you go you will meet people as you find them. You don't need a diagnosis – everybody's just different."

Night of acoustic guitar

IN the acoustic guitar world, Jacques Stotzem is renowned as a finger-style guitarist with a unique and highly refined playing style.

Jacques, who will be playing Haverhill Arts Centre on Saturday at 8pm, has become a regular guest at European and American festivals and is often invited for tours in Japan, China or Taiwan.

His concert programme combines his own compositions with his 'classic rock' arrangements. This time, he will be paying tribute to one of his guitar heroes – to mark 20 years since his passing – the Irish rock guitarist and singer-songwriter Rory Gallagher.

Fusing the powerful nature of Gallagher's music with his own expressive playing, Jacques' new album 'To Rory' is not only a homage to a legendary musician, it also affirms his own place as one of Europe's leading acoustic guitarists.

To book tickets go to www.haverhillartscentre.co.uk or call (01440) 714140.

LIVE BROADCAST: The Bolshoi Ballet's Don Quixote will be performed on April 10.

HERE FOR A GOOD TIME: Dominic Kirwan

Thursday, March 31 – Friday, April 8

■ Don't miss the chance to see Jacques Stotzem in action on Saturday at 8pm. In the acoustic guitar world, he is recognised as a finger-style guitarist with a unique and highly refined playing style, who has become a regular guest at European and American festivals and is often invited for tours in Japan, China and Taiwan. Jacques' concert programme combines his own compositions with his 'classic rock' arrangements.

■ Dominic Kirwan, firmly established as one of Ireland's greatest ever entertainers, hits Haverhill with his brand new show on Thursday, April 7, at 7.30pm. The 'Here For A Good Time' tour once again features Dominic's fabulous band, always so popular with his legion of followers, but this time there is also a very special new addition as Dominic introduces his son Barry, a talented singer and musician in his own right, touring with his famous father for the first time.

■ On the cinema front, for those who missed Alan Bennett's The Lady in the Van the arts centre has another screening tomorrow at 7.30pm. The arts centre has fun for the youngsters in Alvin and the Chipmunks: The Road Chip (U) on Monday, April 4, at 2.30pm and the following day at 10.30am. The mischievous rodent trio are worried that they will become homeless if their songwriter and housekeeper Dave proposes to his girlfriend, and so they embark on a madcap adventure to try to break the couple up.

El Stine, a writer, lives in a small town with his daughter Hannah. When the monsters in his books turn out to be more than a product of his imagination and are unleashed upon the town, there's a race against time to stop them. Goosebumps 2D (PG) is showing on Tuesday, April 5, at 2.30pm.

Winner of numerous awards including Oscar Best Picture and with a stellar cast including Mark Ruffalo, Michael Keaton, Rachel McAdams and Liev Schreiber, Spotlight (15) is showing on Tuesday, April 5, at 7.30pm and Monday, April 11, at 1.30pm.

This is the story of a newspaper's Pulitzer Prize-winning exposure of wrongdoing in the Catholic Church. When the Boston Globe's investigative journalists hear allegations that Boston's cardinal covered up child abuse by priests, they are incredulous, but the horrifying truth gradually emerges. Remastered and with additional footage, the acclaimed animated version of the Ted Hughes novel, The Iron Giant (U), is showing on Wednesday, April 6, at 2.30pm. The arts centre also has an autism-friendly showing on Thursday, May 5, at 10am. In the evening on Wednesday, April 6, Michael Caine, Harvey Keitel, Rachel Weisz and Jane Fonda star in Youth (15). Fred Ballinger, a retired composer and international conductor, is staying at a tranquil Swiss spa when he receives a visit from a Buckingham Palace emissary with a request to perform his most famous piece, but he refuses 'for personal reasons' that only become clear later. Finally Secret in their Eyes (15) on Friday, April 8, at 7.30pm sees Chiwetel Ejiofor, Julia Roberts and Nicole Kidman in a traumatised post 9/11 America. Elite FBI investigators Ray and Jess are called to a brutal murder and are consumed with grief when they discover that the victim is Jess's daughter. The narrative then fast forwards to 2015 when Ray persuades the district attorney to reopen the unsolved case.

■ Events to watch out for include the live broadcast of the Bolshoi Ballet's Don Quixote on Sunday, April 10, at 4pm

HANDCRAFTED: The MY17 GT-R

Nissan unveils new MY17 GT-R beast

NISSAN unveiled the new MY17 GT-R at the New York International Auto Show this week, with a new look inside and out, as well as major driving-performance enhancements and key new features. They represent the most significant changes made to the model since it was introduced in 2007.

The GT-R's award-winning 3.8-litre 24-valve twin-turbocharged V6 engine – each unit handcrafted by its own TAKUMI technician – now delivers 570PS at 6,800rpm and 637Nm of torque. The engines are the definition of TAKUMI expertise. It comes mated to a thoroughly refined 6-speed dual-clutch transmission that features smoother shifts and less noise.

The MY17 Nissan GT-R will be available this autumn.

Hawk-eyed new platform at heart of latest Impreza

SUBARU has unveiled the all-new 2017 Impreza sedan and hatchback ahead of the New York International Auto Show. The first model to be underpinned by Subaru's advanced new Global Platform architecture, the new Impreza is engineered to deliver significantly higher levels of driving pleasure, agility, crash protection and ride comfort. The Subaru Global Platform will underpin a variety of upcoming Subaru vehicles, including hybrids and the next generation of Subaru's supremely capable, all-terrain SUV and crossover models.

As before, every Impreza is equipped as standard with Symmetrical All-Wheel Drive, which maximises driving agility, stability and traction on all surfaces, and gives the car a key advantage over front-wheel drive competitors.

The all new 2017 Impreza 5-door hatchback is currently under consideration for the European market.

Subaru's new design language puts the brand's signature hexagonal grille and 'hawk-eye' headlights onto a more sculptural body, its athletic stance accentuated by prominent wheel arches and flowing lines. The dramatic new look carries into the cabin, with an 'outward-flow' design that echoes that of the front of the car.

The 2017 Impreza rides on a 2,670 mm wheelbase, up 25 mm compared to the current-generation Impreza, while overall length is up 41 mm and width increases by 38 mm. The larger dimensions create a roomier cabin, while a 10 mm lower height aids aerodynamics with a lower coefficient of drag. Although sleeker in appearance than the previous models, the 2017 Impreza preserves excellent all-around visibility.

Subaru's hallmark technologies – four-cylinder horizontally-opposed 'Boxer' engines, Symmetrical All-Wheel Drive (AWD) and the EyeSight driver safety assist system – join the new Subaru Global Platform in providing the core foundations of next-generation of Subaru vehicles.

The EyeSight system acts as a 'second pair of eyes' for drivers by employing stereo colour camera technology to monitor the road and traffic ahead of potential hazards. In the new Impreza, EyeSight includes Adaptive Cruise Control, Automatic Pre-Collision Braking and Lane Departure and Sway Warning, plus a Lane Keep Assist function. Blind Spot Detection and Rear Cross Traffic Alert are also available.

The Impreza's new platform incorporates several types of high-strength steel to significantly enhance straight-line stability, agility and ride comfort, while suppressing noise, vibration and harshness to a degree not seen in the compact class. Specifically, the new platform increases rigidity of the unitised body structure by over 70 per cent compared to the current Impreza model.

A lower centre of gravity and revised suspension systems contribute to the biggest-ever leap forward in Subaru's dynamic capabilities.

R8 Spyder thrills

INTOXICATING: Audi's latest R8 Spyder

THRILLING open-air motoring accompanied by the guttural roar of a mighty naturally aspirated engine – this is the essence of the Audi R8 Spyder, and the formula has lost none of its intoxicating purity in an all-new successor destined to make its debut at this week's New York Auto Show.

The latest R8 Spyder with naturally aspirated V10 power returns more technologically accomplished, more powerful and quicker against the clock, even more tightly pinned to corners and even more composed on the straights thanks to a 50 per cent improvement in torsional rigidity.

"With its spontaneous throttle response, quick revving-up and inimitable sound, the 5.2 FSI naturally aspirated engine in the new Audi R8 Spyder delivers undiluted emotion," remarked Audi technical supremo Dr Stefan Knirsch. "Compared to the R8 Coupé, the engine sound in the open high-performance sports car now delivers an even more intense experience."

Cuvva: Insurance deals by the hour

AS 2016 proves to be increasingly traffic-bound – not least on the A14 – Insur-Tech company Cuvva has announced the first app that let's you buy comprehensive car insurance on a friend's car.

Founded by Freddy Macnamara who grew up in rural Scotland where he was frequently stranded, with buses into town leaving only twice a day. He became frustrated that despite the fact his family and friends all had cars close by sitting idle, he couldn't drive them.

In his words: "Insurance is broken, and I believe I can help to fix it – we've turned a process that normally takes an hour, into a 10 second, on-demand service on your smartphone. What Uber have done for booking a taxi, we have now done for 'getting Cuvva'd'."

The app reduces the complex, expensive and uncertain process of getting insured on a friend's car and allows you to book hourly car insurance on demand.

Users download the app, get

CUVVA: Helping you to use others' cars with hourly insurance options verified, enter the car's registration that they wish to be insured on. Booking car insurance is a three-step process selecting the number of hours you need the car for and then your done. You're insured.

Freddy says: "It's been a huge learning process for me and my co-founder, James, but we're fortunate to have had support from the Barclays Techstars Accelerator and some great advice from leading players in the insurance industry and investors."

POTHOLE IN NEWMARKET: There is definitely trouble ahead

£11.8bn and 14 years: The pothole repair bill

FIXING roads in England and Wales will cost £11.8 billion and take 14 years, according to a new report.

The Asphalt Industry Alliance survey of local authorities said the time it would take to bring roads to a "reasonable condition" has risen by a year in the last 12 months, despite more than two million potholes being filled.

The survey said that although the number of potholes filled over the last year has dropped, the figure remains high at 2.2 million.

The report found it would take over a decade to clear the backlog of repairs in England and Wales, and said 67 years was the average time before a "non-principal road" is resurfaced in England – a 30 per cent growth since last year.

£28.4 million was paid in road user compensation claims last year.

Triumphant Young claims medal glory

Golf

PETER Young lifted the Bob Hutchinson Cup after being crowned winner of Haverhill's midweek medal final.

Young shot a round of nett 69 to take the win, with Allen O'Donoghue one shot behind him in second and David Peck third on 73.

Andy Gage won the IFF Challenge final, which comprised all of the division winners throughout the 2015/16 season.

Gage racked up 41 points to secure victory, with Phil Jones second on countback from Dan Wilkins after both scored 39.

Peter Bowers and Gerry Scott finished third in the Millennium Cup fourball better ball competition at the final round of the Suffolk Winter Alliance, which was held at Haverhill.

Former Haverhill captains Bowers and Scott took third on countback thanks to their score of 20 points on the back nine, for a total of 41.

Felixstowe Ferry pairing Tom Martin and Ben Sayers won the Millennium Trophy, with Stoke-by-Nayland duo Danny Goddard and Richard Bland taking second.

Stowmarket's Sam Forgan won the professionals prize thanks to his one over par round of 71.

Dean Fairweather, of Bury Driving Range, took second after going round in 76, and Stowmarket's Alex Davey finished third with 77.

Haverhill's ladies suffered a 2½-1½ loss at home to Stowmarket in a friendly.

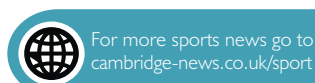

Marian Mercer and Ann Thompson got Haverhill's only win by beating Sylvia Pearce and Jenny Buckle.

Linda Alexander and Jo Stokes halved their match with Veda Berriman and Jane Foster, but there were losses for Sheila Price and Siobhan Harrison, and Doreen Crosse and Jenni Bradnam.

Ernie Tong was named winner of this year's Kernutt Cup in recognition of the valuable contribution he has made to Haverhill since joining the club in 1983.

Tong served as captain in 1990 and assisted in the planning to extending the course to 18 holes and the clubhouse during the same decade.

The award formed part of the seniors' prize presentation, with them playing a Texas scramble prior to that which was won by Alastair Cocks, Derek Taylor, Brian Johnson and Mick Dalena.

Other prize winners: Winter League – Alastair Cocks; Bleasdale Cup – Pat Wellstead and Phil Jones; Ladies' Monday League – Val Shipp; Mott Cup (men's Monday League) – Mick Start.

Penalty gives Rovers win over rivals Newmarket

A 94TH-MINUTE penalty scored by Marcus Hunt gave Haverhill Rovers a 3-2 win at Newmarket Town in the Thurlow Nunn League, Premier Division.

Deakan Napier put Newmarket in front in the 14th minute, converting a penalty that he had won when he was brought down by Hunt.

But Rovers levelled through Rory Jebb and then went ahead two minutes later when Hunt backheeled the ball over the line.

Napier scored a second goal for Newmarket on the hour, but Rovers' Ian Ford's overhead kick was handled, and Hunt converted the penalty.

Interim manager Tom Donati said: "It was a good team performance. The players kept going and didn't give up."

"The team spirit is good because the players that are here are the ones that want to be here."

In the First Division, Haverhill Borough controlled much of their match at King's Lynn reserves, but lost 2-1.

Owen Longley gave Borough the lead in the 25th minute but two goals in the last 10 minutes ensured King's Lynn were victorious.

"It was a disappointing result," said Borough manager Martin Westcott.

"But the performance was really good. The keeper and defence played very well. I can't be too downhearted."
